

One day I was just reading my favorite fairy tale book. The fairy tale book had fairies in it, lots of fairies. They all had plant houses. There was a big forest next to it. The fairies sometimes went into it to collect wood or make new treehouses. I was done reading for the day. I closed my book and went to sleep. I went to sleep the next day I woke up in a magical forest. There were a little magical Sparkles everywhere. Finally I made it out of the forest and there were little mushroom houses, tree houses, flower houses and other plant houses all around. The treehouses have fairy lights hanging from their branches. The mushroom houses had lots of flowers around them. And the flower houses had a big farm. It was a village wait a second it wasn't, it was a fairy neighborhood. I didn't know if I should talk to the fairies. But something started to happen to my body and I started to turn into a fairy. Oh no. Now that I am a fairy I could probably go and talk to them but really I didn't know what to say. But I went up to one fairy and said "I'm a new fairy that came from the forest. do you have any extra houses that I can stay in" I was shaking I was nervous I didn't know what the fairy was going to say but she actually said yes you can stay in my house with me. So I spent the time with that fairy. The fairies house was actually pretty big. I think it was the biggest house in this very Village. The fairy came inside and then I asked her what's your name. She said it was Madeline. Madeline had beautiful brown hair, Crystal Clear wings with tiny sparkles on them. She wore a dress, that's such a pretty name Madeline said what's your name. I wasn't sure what to say so I paused for like 10 seconds. So what's your name said Madeline. I made a huffing sound but it was little. Madeline was very patient so she waited for me to say my name. She's been so nice to me so I told her my name. Well it's not as pretty as yours but my name is Ever. That's a much prettier name nevermind I think said Madeline. but I know she was just trying to make me feel good. so I smiled back at her and she smiled back at me. oh do you want to look around the Fairy Village said Madeline. Sure so I went outside inside all of the houses and all of the fairies and I was nervous. I don't know why because I was fully disguised. But wait a second something was going on with my body. I was turning into a human again! I ran to the forest and hid behind the trees. Oh no what do I do. Then I realized it was nighttime and I was actually pretty tired so instead of sleeping in a fairy house I slept on the cold ground but the cold trees. The next morning I was at my house my house my world no Fairies no Forest just my home. I was relieved and excited that I was back home so I decided to read my fairytale book and all that I just went through was in the book. I was at the end of the book so all that was the end of the book. Was it all a dream? I was not sure if it was, but it felt so real. Well it was the morning I thought it was magic. But i don't think so...
