

Little red riding hood

My version

This is 1st person point of view

I AM IN A BOOK

You know my dear it isn't safe for you to be walking around the woods hi i'm sophie 12 years old i have waist length blonde hair and brown eyes and i was reading my favorite fairy tale little red riding hood. i leaned against the tree suddenly i jolted up right i was no longer in my backyard i was in a small basket along with a bunch of food i looked around my surroundings forest there was a girl in a red cape holding the basket wait was i in little red riding hood lifted up my hand they were paws i was a dog.

AHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH

Wait little red riding hood didn't have a dog. Forget about that let's focus on the more important question: why was I in the Little Red Riding Hood and how .But first I needed to warn little red riding hood about the wolf and how he was going to trick her but how was I going to tell her but I was a dog. what was the most subtle way to approach her hi i said your life is in danger i said. Ahhhhhhhhhhhh she screamed and dropped the basket” subtle right”. She poked the basket as if it were magic, maybe that was a little too subtle. Hhhhhhhhm i thought. How are you doing today? I said again ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh she yelled again.” The dog in me said what was wrong with a talking dog but the kid in me could relate “.

WOLF

W w who a a are you she stuttered hhhm I thought for a moment. I um i live in a foreign country and when me and my family took a trip here and i got separated b b but you talk she said . After a moment she said what foreign are you from she asked. Err California cala -who- what she asked . Right california wasn't hear in the 1400s i should've been paying a in history class umm now i really regret not paying attention in history class just then i heard a noise in the bushed what was that said red (that's a nickname for little red riding hood”)yes saved by the big bad wolf or id it good i don't know people “. Um we need to run i said no red replied run i said ~~no~~ she said RUN. I grabbed her by the ankle and pulled her. She was surprisingly light for an eighteen year old. I pulled her till i couldn't pull any more wide you do that she said through pants because something bad could've happened to you yeah right she said like i'm going to listen to a talking do she made a good point i thought *sigh*.

I JUST JUMPED OFF A CLIFF

We have been sitting on the ground for a long time now. Red got up and started walking. Where are you going i asked her. To my grandmother's house. You held me back so long and it's getting dark so i'm going to my grandmother's house. What you can't, what about the wolf. What wolf said red. Well if that didn't get your attention nothing will. Um nothing. I would rather be in the middle of a wolf's stomach right now then having this conversation. What wolf she asked again. Let's head to grandmother's house, I said. No i think i would like to hear more about this wolf. Well i began suddenly the bushes moved. Behind the bush I said. We both jumped behind the bush. Why are we hiding? She said. Just watch i said. A wolf emerged from the forest and into the clearing wolf red stuttered. I couldn't really blame her. The wolf was as big as two large men and had long shaggy fur with bright yellow eyes. Stay quiet i told her that won't be hard she whispered back. The wolf turned the other direction. I think he's gone. I told her I felt breathing we slowly turned around. There he was. I stand corrected. We jumped out of the bushes and ran for our life. I just wish my P.E teacher could see me now. But the fun ended when we came to a cliff. The wolf cornered us. Now dear, all I want is to have a snack he said. It can talk too. What kind of forest is this whimpered red. The wolf extended it's shiny claw's and the unexpected happened. Red grabbed me and we jumped. We jumped off the cliff. The last thing I saw was the ground hurtling towards us and my last thought was I was going to die.

I was going to die ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh i yelled were going to die screamed red well maybe we crashed into the river
