The Adventures of Jack and the Crew of Heroes

One day in a world where monsters are taking over the world. There were only three survivors around. They had a house that they had used to live in to survive. They were friends and they thought were the only ones after the madness. They were the only people that they saw after the madness. The madness was like what I am about to tell you the madness started by monsters.

They open a portal to go to different worlds. They work together to survive in this town. They each have a job to help each other survive. One gets food, one gets stuff to protect the base, the other one gets to make sure the area is safe. One day they all went out to find any survivors. They found only 3. Two girls and one boy. They became a part of the team. They work on the base to make two bases. One treehouse having a zip line leading to base two a house. One day there was a flood. So all 6 of them went to the top of the treehouse. The flood gets higher and higher every second! They have an idea. They found a boat. They jumped into the water and went to the boat. They drove it around the town. They had a lot of fun. Hours later the water drained. They went back to the treehouse with the boat. Hours later, They went to the store to look for loot. They found a lot of food and water and other things and went back to the treehouse. They could last for days. One day Jack got a pet monster. It was able to fly. His name is VC.

One day Jack found out the survivors' names. It was Michael, Patricia and Amy, the people who we saved. Later they went on a long Journey and found a lot of good loot on the journey. they went to the mines to see if there were any survivors. There are survivors!!!! There is a survivor in front of a bunker They ask to go in the big bunker. He says yes. All but Jack go in. Jack says, "Can I come in later I need to get something?" 'He says, "yes." Jack went to get his stuff, his friends' stuff and brought VC with him. The guard asked, "Is the monster friendly?" "Yes," Jack said to the guard. He went in with everything he had. They were safe for now...

The end.
