

My creative narrative rough draft

oh Hi my name is sparks the dog i have smooth black hair brown eyes a tail that wags a lot. and i always wanted to be an astronaut and this is my story. ding ding good morning sparks he heard one of his humans say he did not understand what that meant but he liked it anyway. so he said it to his friends a lot so he slipped out of his bed and went up stairs . He was greeted by the smell of pancakes yum he thought. His owners said hello sparks and he barked back hi but they heard it has just a bark so he went up the door and onto the roof he then saw a cat emerge from another door. The cat had a tan coat and sparkling blue eyes and a long tail. Her name was Molly.then a fluffy white bunny with a pure black nose and pink paws named hops emerged. From a door hi said molly and sparks hi hops said back. So sparks said today we are holding our first pets united meeting. We have been working on projects for a long time, said sparks proudly . Ohhhh said hops jumping up and down. Cotral yourself said molly.i know said hops i am just so excited hops said. We are going to make small model cardboard rockets. I will go get the utensils there for the structure, the cardboard for the base and soda for the rockets Molly you get cardboard and hops you get soda. Wow said hops and molly at the sametime then hops said jinx i don't do jinx said molly well i do said hops so you owe me some milk what no said molly that is my milk and i like it . fine said hops okay so we will need a cardboard base and some utensils okay guys sparks said yes molly said yes hops said okay so let's get inside and do this said sparks ya said hops so everybody went into there spark went inside and heard the clattering of the dishes this will be a hard steal to get those utensils but i will do it anyways so sparks crept low on the floor then barked and wimperd his owners looked over his shoulder at sparks okay he said i will get you a treat sparks barked back okay the owner left phew he thought then he went to the dishwasher and opened it up by pushing the bar up with his front paws and got the utensils and went outside then his owner came back and looked at the open dishwasher and the missing utensils wonder how that got opened he murmured to himself. Back on the top sparks found molly and hops sitting on the roof hi he said hi they said back okay sparks said we have all are stuff lets sleep and come back tomorrow and i will tell you the grand plan and with that sparks headed back down

In the morning sparks came up onto the roof and found his friends sitting there to hops leapt up when he saw sparks molly however stayed perfectly still hi guys sparks said hi they said back okay are you guys ready yes they said okay then so are grand plan is for us all to get to space stunned silence greeted sparks molly and hops mouth were wide open what sparks said it is reasonable no it is not molly said we would be the first pets to even go into space except that weird mosquito hops chimed molly shot a cold glare at hops what hops said well anyway it still is unreasonable what will are owners think molly said in truth sparks about that
