The Ultimate Surprise Party

On a bright and sunny day, It was a warm day. The time was around lunch time. Dan TDM could feel the warm sun on his skin. There were so many vibrant colors from all the flowers that were blooming! It was DanTDM's birthday, Dan is a 30 year old man who loves to play video games. He actually gets paid to do this! If only we could all get paid good money to play games all day! He is a very happy guy and always stops to talk to people. Dan TDM decided to go to the zoo with himself and his pugs. He walked with his pugs to the zoo only to discover that there was a really long line. Seeing this, he thought to himself " This will take forever!" He then made the choice to go to the park nearby to kill some time. He played with his dogs for a bit until there was no longer a big line. He walked back, bought his ticket, and went in. When he went through the gate, a bunch of people were crowding around. He felt like he was closed up in an elevator or a sauna. It seemed so loud! He could hear every little noise it all seemed amplified! He went to almost every exhibit and shop except one. The exhibit he did not visit was the turtle exhibit. He went to the turtle exhibit and noticed a table with a cake and a sign next to it with a capital D. Behind him, someone came up and smashed his face into the cake. Unable to see, he tumbled back into the turtle pond, and those around him laughed. Then Dan TDM came out of the water, laughing as well, and his friends all yelled "surprise!" They all came together and celebrated while they cut the cake. The cake was nice and fluffy! It was so chocolatey!

A few hours went by and Dan TDM was really into one of his video games. When all of a sudden he felt these waves in his stomach, like a tide going out of the ocean! Dan TDM took a couple of deep breaths and tried to get up and walk around. He started to get mad at his own stomach. He tried to get some sprite to see if that would help. Nothing was helping so he started to talk to his own stomach. " Stop hurting! I probably should have skipped that cake. Even though it was so fluffy! " He tried to go play with his pugs to get his mind off of the pain. This did not seem to help right away! After a while his stomach started to get more angry! Dan's stomach started jiggling and bouncing! His stomach became an electrical force! Then all of a sudden his stomach came out of him and started bouncing around the house.

Dan, fearing the worst, decides to set a trap to capture his stomach. He creates a trail of tasty snacks that lead into a shoe box with a trap door. His stomach eats all the snacks and almost escapes, but at the last moment, Dan smacks it into the box with a broom. To get his stomach to calm down, Dan pokes a few holes in the box and pours in a can of Canada Dry ginger ale. It works like a charm. With one big gulp, Dan swallows his stomach and they are once again united. The end!
