

The J Files Vol.1

I woke up in an orphanage. I know that because it does not look like my room but it does look familiar. I'm very confused; Why does everything look animated? The room is full of bunk beds and very gloomy.

It seems like I am in the Despicable Me world!

I hear other kids at breakfast and I go downstairs and see the kids eating. It smells like bacon, pancakes and waffles. There are tons of round tables for 4. All the kids are talking at the same time and it is very loud.

 1 hour later

Ms. Hatty, the orphanage lady, says into the intercom, "Margo, Edith, Agnes, and Jackson come to the lobby with your bags." Margo says, "Yes! It's finally happening! "

A man named Gru has come to adopt the three sisters and me. He is tall, has a big long pointy nose, a bald head, icy blue eyes. He is wearing a white coat with tools and a red plastic comb in the pocket. I see Gru and I turn to Ms. Hatty and I say, "So, where's the guy that's going to adopt us?"

Ms. Hatty says, "Standing right in front of you! He's a dentist"

"Hellow, I am Grru your nue Dad", Gru says a little bit shy.

I think that's weird because a dentist needs to work full time and I don't see a mom.

Maybe he's a part-time dentist...

Agnes, the little one has black hair pulled back into a ponytail. Her large blue eyes look frightened. She has always wanted to be adopted and expected her new house to be made of gummy bears. She is clinging to a tiny unicorn that I made for her.

The middle sister, Edith, is mischievous. She has a pink hat that covers most of her blond hair and a matching jacket. She likes to pull pranks and often gets in trouble. The first few times Ms Hatty didn't know it was Edith and she got away with it. That gave her the idea to pull more pranks, until Ms Hatty caught her on the security cameras.

Margo, the oldest sister, is serious and skeptical of Gru. She is the "boss" of the sisters and tries to keep track of them and keep them out of trouble.

Edith grabs her bag and turns back towards the stairs to her room, but Margo stops her.

Margo gives Edith "the look" and Edith comes back.

I am the pun maker of the group. I am in between Edith and Margo in age and have sometimes helped Edith with her pranks by inventing machines and creatures. (I once made a blob of slime that actually moved and was alive and squirted ooze; Ms Hatty did not like that!)

All of us leave in Gru's "car", which looks like his big nose in the back, made out of silver metal. It is unusual and bigger than other cars.

We get to his house in a little while and I think it looks cool, different, but cool.

The grass is full of weeds and is dead. The house is black and gray and is larger than the other houses in the normal neighborhood. It is a depressing house and made of cold dark bricks. It looks haunted.

We go inside and I wonder if all the stuff from WWII is here...there are weapons everywhere. A cannon the size of a great white shark is hanging from the ceiling. Swords with blades big enough to slice the front off a small car, rusty axes, and maces with spikes big enough to make a medium size dent in a 3 foot thick metal wall are everywhere.

I don't think this guy is a dentist. I think he's a survivor from WWII.

Gru puts us in the kitchen and I see a big laser. Cool! But I wonder, what it's for? Like I said, I really, really don't think this guy is a dentist. Gru leaves the kitchen to go change clothes.

We start to look around the kitchen. I see a black scraggly dog like creature with a jaw half the size of a shark's with an underbite full of large pointy teeth. As he comes towards us I think he is not friendly. He is snarling, running towards us with his jaws open. Just before he reaches us I flick out my blue lightsaber with hand shield and light dagger attached that I made and he skids to a stop and then runs out of the kitchen. The girls are relieved and stunned. I press the red button to retract the laser from the lightsaber just as Gru comes back into the kitchen.

Gru says, "WHAAT eez that thing?" Edith answers, "It's Jackson's lightsaber."

Margo adds, "More like Life SAVER!"

Gru says, "OK..." in a curious tone.

Gru has changed into all black. He has a black and gray scarf wrapped around his neck twice and a jacket with a zipper pull that has a "G" on it.

Gru says in a grumpy way, "Don't bothere me while I'm wurking. I will see you in 6 hrs." That just makes us very curious so...

We all sneak behind Gru down a secret passage to an underground lab full of bad guy stuff like:

- weird potions in bottles,
- a lot of little yellow creatures wearing goggles, called "Minions" (the creatures, not the goggles),
- weapons,
- a plane that looks like Gru's car but backwards,
- tunnels and bridges for the 'Minions,'
- knight armor

"I really, really, really don't think this guy is a dentist," I say.

Gru goes up to a stage with a jumbotron screen behind him. All the minions crowd around the stage. Gru starts an announcement. "We have lowcated a shrrink ray in a secrut lawb in Kalach, Rushia. We are going to ste-ul this shrrink rray and use it to puwll off the biggest heist in the woarld. We are going to steal...THE MOOOON!"

The crowd of Minions all say, "OOOOHHHH!"

Gru continues, " Bab, Jerrry, Phil and Jaff weill be coming with me. We arre guing to take the jet."

I say "Shrink ray?" Edith says, " In Kalach, Russia?" I really, really, really, really dont think this Gru guy is a dentist. Margo says, "We have to stop him!"

I say, " If he's going to be our dad he can't be a bad guy!"

Agnes answers, "YEAH!" and takes a second to try to figure out how to cross her arms and frown. She's so cute! It's hard to take her seriously...

We think of a plan and the girls and I hide in the back of Gru's jet.

Gru and the chosen Minions get in and take off. The ceiling of the lab opens up and the plane comes out of the backyard!

We fly over an ocean for what seems like a million hundred hours. We finally land near a building that looks like a giant black mushroom that has black flags shaped like snakes tongues and have letter K's on them. Gru and some Minions try to sneak inside but the alarm goes off and they come running really fast back to the jet panicked.

On the second try, Gru attempts to approach from above in the jet. He uses the built in drill and claw to get into the mushroom.

Gru succeeds to steal the shrink ray with the claw and controls it from the jet and says, "We got thae shrrrink ray."

On the way home, Bob finds us hiding in the jet. Minions don't speak english. Bob says, "Catapwe? Uuuuuuhhhh...shshshshsh." He does not tell Gru we are there.

After Gru lands the plane back his the lab, I try to get his attention by fake clearing my throat. He is surprised to find us hiding in the back. He says in a scared and surprised voice, "Noel, wait!, this is juist a big misunderrstanding, I'm not a villen, do not call the police, please!" I say, "We won't call the police if you turn good!"

When we get back upstairs, the girls and I try to convince Gru to become a good guy instead of a villain.

"Why don't you become a secret agent, so that you can still do what you love to do but as a good guy instead!"

Gru says, "That iz a thing? Hmmmmm, I'll think abouw t it."

Gru realises his bad example to us and says, " As llong as I still get to uze my wapons!"

Gru says, "But! We have to make a deal. If you stap sneaking behind my back, I will try. Ok?"

All of us agree and we say, "Ok!"

The Minions are upset and say, "Boss! Boss!"

Gru says, "Bab! I made a dee-al!"

*Bob sticks his tongue out and spits*and all the other minions do the same.

Gru looks up on Google secret spy companies that are hiring agents. He finds one called AVL, aka-Anti Villain league. Gru calls them and sets up an interview.

Hopefully he will get a job with AVL. After all, he does have experience with villains!
